

Five-year evaluation cycle
Accomplish evaluation and licensure cycles at the same time.
State law requires provisional teachers be evaluated twice a year.
Career educators evaluated once a year
Educator involved in the evaluation process by:
 Setting goals
 Gathering lines of evidence
 Discussing progress of goals with supervisor

Educator Evaluation Process

After Provisional Year 3, the educator is placed in the Career Formative Year based upon re-licensure year.

