GEA PAC Fund

GEA PAC Fund collects voluntary contributions from Association members and use those contributions for political purposes, including, but not limited to, making contributions to and expenditures on behalf of friends of public education who are candidates for state office, state school board, local school board education etc.

All contributions are voluntary. Contributing is neither a condition of employment nor membership in the Association, and members have the right to refuse to contribute without suffering any reprisal.

Contributions are not deductible as charitable contributions for federal income tax purposes.
